Dear Mr. Strong,

I recently visited the 390th air museum memorial. At the B-17 display I spoke about my father a tailgunner for the "Commando Chief" 306th division, 423 Squadron, to a museum employee. The employee - a Mr. Bennett gave me your address in hopes that I could reunite my father Jack L. Anderson with his crew. My father, as well as my family are very proud of his part in helping our country, and he often mentions how nice it would be to get together with the "old gang". I would appreciate any information you could send me regarding the 306th, 423 pl - information regarding reunions and or dues to any memberships for mailings, etc. I'm not certain what information you would need from me except what I have given: 306th, 423 pl - stationed in England and that my father flew 95 missions. He was 19 at the time. As I mentioned any information you could send me would be a great help as well as a great surprise.

Send any information to:

I sincerely appreciate any help in this matter.
