

2/ I, for one, thoroughly enjoy reading the Echoes. To date, we are in touch with 2 other fellow airmen, B. Wayne Cassaday and Joseph Leben who was his navigator, all the others have passed on.

If there are any copies left,
please send the folder:

Thank you so much

Ted and I were married after he completed his mission out of Shurliga in Sept. 1944.

Today, a grandson left for England. He is a member of Community Service Volunteer and will be assigned to assist a student at Essex University which is northeast of London. We told him to try to get over to Shurligh in his spare time. But isn't that ironic that 60 years later, a family member will see where his granddad spent 10 months of his combat years.

We are originally from Chicago. But found living conditions more suitable in Spokane. Ted was stationed here at Steiger Field just before taking off for England.

Dear Russ,

I was on the road nine weeks
and covered over 10,000 miles.
Overall, had a great trip.

Enjoyed your article on the reunions.
Would have enjoyed being with you, but I wasn't quite ready.

I did get to see Bernal Sharp, as I planned. He had pancreatic cancer. He died 9-4-92. Survived by his wife Carla and a large number of children and grand children.

Re the pictures I left

with you, and you returned to me, I incorrectly ID. the man behind me - far right in rear row - as Orval Cook. The man's name (Bernal had them all written down) was Walter F. Miller.
He was with us just a short while. Neither Bernal nor I could remember when Orval joined us. I'll check with Orval next time I see him.

I plan to see you in Seattle.
I hope to take the Alaska Cruise,
also.

I enjoyed my short visit
with you.
Peace,
Ted

Dear Russ:

Ph. (413) 253-3884

I was all set to sell my house and get out of town on Sept. 8, and head for Des Moines, but the deal did not jell, so I couldn't make it.

The dust finally settled and I left Calif. on Oct. 2nd. I got a whole 35 miles out of town before my motorhome broke down. After more mishaps I finally made it to Massachusetts.

I'm living with my daughter, but looking for a place of my own. I'll be using her address until I find a permanent place. I plan to make it to Knoxville, TN this year. Peace to all, Ted
