

Dominic P. Cwalinski, 81; was GE welder for 33 years

ROTTERDAM — Longtime GE worker Dominic P. Cwalinski, 81, of Wavell Road died Thursday at Ellis Hospital, Schenectady, after a brief illness.

Born in Schenectady, Mr. Cwalinski attended the old Schenectady High School and was a lifelong area resident.

During World War II, he served as a medic with the Army's 306th Bomb Group in Europe.

For 33 years, Mr. Cwalinski was a welder for the General Electric Co. before retiring in 1976.

He was a communicant of the Church of St. Adalbert.

Mr. Cwalinski was a member of the GE Quarter Century Club and the St. Jerzego Society; and a past member of the Polish American Veterans.
