Dear Mr. Strong.

I was supposed to have sent you this photo a long time ago, but it slipped my mind until I read the article in Echoes about Richardson's Trip to Algiers. I guess that is what old age does to you.

any way here is a photo of all of us after we landed in Algiers.

I had the original enlarged, and am enclosing a negative also.

I am sorry that I didn't send it sooner.

maybe you can put it in the next Echoes, as my mistake.

yours truly,
Robert Duggins
