THE PILOT I JOINED THE 306TH WITH - FLEW
25 MISSIONS - WAS SCARED SHITLESS THE WHOLE
TIME - WHEN HE LEFT HE SAID HE WOULD FORGET
HIS CREW IMMEDIATELY AND NEVER WANTED TO HEAR FROM ANY OF US - WE AGREED - NONE OF US REMEMBER THE S.O.B.'S NAME —

JUST HONORING HIS REQUEST —

BY THE WAY; HE WORE ONE PAIR OF PANTS
DURING HIS TOUR, NO CLEANING - NO CHANGE -
AFRAID IT WOULD BE BAD LUCK —

IF YOU REALLY WANT HIS NAME ITS IN THE

306TH BOMBARDMENT GROUP ASSOCIATION

January 31, 2004

Dear Joe;

I acknowledge and thank you for your letter of January 24, 2004 with suggestions for the future of the 306th Bomb Group.

I assure you that suggestions from all members will be discussed and acted upon by the elected officers and directors to arrive at the best solutions for all concerns.

I do know that some contributions and commitments were made at the reunion after Russell's Strong's summation of the financial situation.

I am looking forward to the results from Russell's next Echo's plea for financial help. I do feel good about our plan and think it will be productive.

RECEIVED THIS TODAY -
FROM JOE CONROY - I DID
CALL LARRY TO DETERMINE
WHAT I MIGHT LEARN
FROM HIM - "NOT MUCH" - THEIR ATTENDANCE IS
NORMALLY  $\pm$  500. HE KNOWS
OF GROUPS WITH AS FEW
AS 4 ATTENDING UNIT REUNION.
IT APPEARS THAT WE ARE DOING PRETTY GOOD.

OVER

THEY HAVE THE SAME AGE
PROBLEMS - AND ARE THINKING ABOUT HOW TO PERPETUATE THE ORGANIZATION.
THEY HAVE THE ADVANTAGE
OF AN ACTIVE 8th AIR FORCE.

LET'S HAVE A HAPPY

As Membership Chairman of the Eighth Air Force Historical Society, I approach you and your Board of Directors as well as your membership with a subject of utmost importance, the survival of the Mighty Eighth.

Most Units are facing the same problem, the diminished attendance at their reunions. In some cases, future reunions are being canceled. A possible solution to this common problem is to have your organization rethink your future plans and to consider holding your reunion in conjunction with the Eighth Air Force Historical Society. There is a great deal to be gained by your Unit. First of all, our reunions are planned by Armed Forces Reunion Inc., a first class Company that has been planning Veteran's reunions for many years. They have an experienced staff and plan their events well in advance. Your organization can benefit by relieving those who plan your reunions of the tedious and massive job of planning. At the reunion site your Unit can have your own meeting room, your own banquet room, and the opportunity for your members to meet other veterans of the Mighty Eighth.

For many years several Units have done this. They have had tremendous attendance and at the general membership meeting have become involved in the Society's activities.

"WESTIN CROWN PLAZA"
At the 2004 reunion in Kansas City Mo., October 5-10, Units with 50 people in attendance, and smaller Units with 25 people in attendance may receive a FREE hospitality room. This is for 2004 ONLY. Also, any Unit with 10 or more people in attendance will receive a $5.00 rebate per person at ANY reunion.

This is something that your Unit cannot afford to pass up. Your organization saves money, time and the work of planning. The historical Society is prepared to help in any area of planning or printed matter for publication in your newsletter. Keep in mind.....we are all interested in the Heritage of the Mighty Eighth and how to "KEEP THE MEMORIES ALIVE".

Reconsider the plans that you have made for future reunions and the money that can be saved. Look carefully at your attendance figures for the past few years, then review this idea with your Board of Directors.

Sincerely,

Larry Goldstein
