Dear Russell: -

I'm sending a check for $25⁰⁰ to you for my copy of "First Over Germany, A History of the 306th Bomb Group" of which I was a proud member from Wendover Field in Utah to Westover, Mass.; to Gander Lake in Newfoundland and over to Prestwick, Scotland and on to Thurleigh and eventually on the first Raid on Germany at Wilhelmshaven. (We were to bomb Vegesack)

The pre-publication price of the book is $17⁵⁰ and I made my check for $25⁰⁰ with the understanding that the extra $7⁵⁰ will help, in a small way, in your continued 306th research.

I feel you are doing a very commendable job and really enjoy the 306th Echoes. It's a rare case, if ever, that I get my picture in any newspaper, but I did in your issue of April 1981, Vol. 6, No. 2. But under the wrong name. On Page 3 of that issue, there are 5 pictures taken at the reunion in Orlando. The group picture in the top left hand corner has John McKee, Russell Strong (you), Jack Lambert, Bill Casey and John Corcoran, standing. The man who is kneeling is me, George Klucick and not Gus Krajcik. I took and have a similar picture, without myself in it, just before Casly Jones came along and told me to get into the picture and he took the picture which is in the paper.

I have been to all of the reunions to date, except the first at Miami, which I wasn't aware of and the last one at St. Paul, due to illness and have enjoyed all of them very much. My future plans are not to miss any more of them.

Again I want to say that you are doing a great job and I often wonder how and where you can find the time and energy and overcome understandable frustrations, at times, in your continued researches where someone like me would just throw up his arms and say "The Hell With It." I have to admire you and your dedication. Keep up the fine work.

Planning to see you again at the next reunion,
I remain —

Sincerely Yours,
George Klucick

Dear Bill:-

Keep up the fine work. I really enjoy the articles in the 306th Echoes and look forward to each new issue.

I'm enclosing a check for $10⁰⁰ to help in a small way.

Sorry I didn't make the reunion in St. Paul due to illness but I'm looking forward to Cincinnati and Houston. I've really enjoyed the reunions in the past and the reunion at St. Paul is the first one I've missed.

Hope to see you again in Cincinnati.

Sincerely Yours,
George Klucick

Continuing 306th Research

Although the new history of the 306th is completed, there will be continuing research conducted on the group in attempting to bring together an even more complete picture. This involves the ongoing search for men who served. If you wish to assist in this effort, send your contributions to
