Dear Jim:

Under separate cover on the 23rd I am mailing back your scrapbook. I know this may not have been quite according to agreement, but I just have to get rid of some of the clutter in my study.

I completed copying the entire book, as I found I could make 11x17 copies of each page at the place where I do my copying. This makes it very nice because all the clippings are readable.

You will see some of them from time to time in Echoes, as many of those stories are still good and interesting.

I have not- yet gotten to work on the photo albums. But I will send Echoes off to the printer within a couple of days and then I get get down to doing the photo copying/

Once I am set up to do it should not take too long. We are now talking about a trip north in early April, and if so, I will probably return the albums then. If I finish with them much earlier I shall be in touch with you on the matter.

It was good to visit with you, and incidentally, I shall be mailing the scrapbook, well packed, by certified mail, which should get rid of any serious problems.

All the best,

6 July 1989

Dear Jim:

It was nice to hear from you, and I appreciated the update on the restoration activities in your area.

I will be completing the copying of the pictures over the weekend and will return the scrap books to you next week. I hope that will be in time.

Enclosed is a list of men in your part of Pennsylvania, a list out of which I would hope that you might be able to recruit committee members for a possible Pittsburgh reunion in 1991.

As you know, we will be in Little Rock this year; move to San Antonio in 1990, and then go to England in 1992.

We have not been in the northeast at all, and I think that Pittsburgh offers the group a great opportunity to attract people whom we have not been close to before, and it ought to bring out 500/600 people.

Having been in Pittsburgh with some regularity of late, I know that the area has much to offer.

I am pleased that you will consider chairing a Pittsburgh reunion, and hope to get a positive answer from you before too long. If possible, I would like to ~~take~~ see your affirmative answer to the reunion business meetings in September.

All the best,
