5. SUGGESTION BOX:

s/ S Sgt A.W. Uek, 36352041,
664th Air Materiel Sq,
414th Air Service-Group

Answer: "Effective 28 April, 1945, the two liberty run trucks for Enlisted Men, that leave town at 2215 hours, will have a sign marked '2215' on the front bumper".

3. Suggestion: "Dear Sir: In the interest of the many EM of this station who have since married British girls:

Would it be possible to obtain all the necessary information, needs, and advise concerning the transportation for the wife to the U. S. AF

If an interested Officer or capable Enlisted man were appointed for these men to turn to discuss their problems with him on the station, many trips to London American Embassy would be spared.

As the war in Europe draws to closer to the end, any help along this line would save many a couple from holding the wrong end of the life rope of Happiness".

Answer: "The Army has beat you to this one. Every AMF Station has a Personal Affairs Officer whose duties include, among many other things, exactly what you mention. On this Station it is Lt. J. D. KLEIN, whose office is in the Personnel Office at Headquarters. His extension is No. 38.
