SUGGESTION BOX

SUGGESTION: "If I am correctly informed there is an organization on this station made up of enlisted representatives from each unit. They meet every so often to make suggestions for the betterment of the station. They have met several times, made suggestions, as yet no action or even a reply to the Council has been made. It appears to me that at least a "Go to Hell" reply would be in keeping with military courtesy. But the Council doesn't even get that courtesy. It is suggested that either the council be abolished or that some action be taken on their suggestions, bitches of Enlisted Men on this station."

ANSWER: You are not correctly informed. Ask any member of the enlisted council there have been delays, true, but only when unavoidable. You should be specific if you want a specific answer - what suggestion do you have in mind? As a result of your suggestion, SB has obtained approval of furnishing to each organization a copy of the minutes of the weekly meeting.
